

The Cost Of Government

TAXATION IS A MATTER which is of interest to almost every citizen in recent years income and other taxes have been a considerable item in the budgets of most Canadians. During the war, the need for increased revenue was obvious, and there were few who questioned the necessity for them to contribute through taxes to the support of Canada's war effort. While there have been reductions in income taxes and in some other fields of taxation recently, it appears unlikely that they will ever again reach pre-war levels. Recent figures issued by the Canadian Bureau of Statistics on the cost of maintaining the Federal government show that there has been a tremendous increase in the past ten years. In the year ending in March 31, there were 118,376 Federal civil servants and their annual salaries totalled $226,790,000.

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

BLACKOUT IN ONTARIO—Bedtime for a lot of young Ontario people comes during early evening power cut-off which some localities have already started. Children here and all night are running into their own again. The youngsters above looks happy about the whole thing.—S.N.S. photo.

WINS NOBEL PRIZE—It was announced in Sweden that Dr. Paul Mueller, 46, of Basel, Switzerland, was awarded the 1948 Nobel Prize in medicine. He was given the prize worth 538,772 crowns ($44,000), for having discovered the strong insect-killing powers of DDT. Dr. Mueller will receive the award in Stockholm.—S.N.S. photo.

CHILDREN IN HOSPITAL ENJOY CHINESE TOY—Gifts from China brought by Tibetan Prince, 20, (right), are showered from Hong Kong in London to take a coloring course. Included the model of a Chinese junk and dolls. They were given to patients at the Great Ormond Street Children's hospital.—Reuterphoto from S.N.S.

SUES FOR CONCERN—Chaiming, shock, pain and suffering which she received when she is said to have found a worm in a bottle of pop. Mrs. Edith Chaiming, shown here, of Windsor, Ont., is suing a soft-drink manufacturer and a dealer for $20,000.—S.N.S. photo.

AFTER THEY GAMBLED WITH DEATH—AND WON—Patricia Langhorne leaves the county hospital in Chicago, Ill., after the second successful operation for malformation of the bladder. She will receive the third and last operation in about six months. So dangerous was the operation that Patricia's parents had separated over the question of whether it should be performed. They became reconciled once the decision was made. Dr. Herbert Trane and Dr. William Sturrock, (right), are holding Patricia good-bye.—S.N.S. photo.

AS THE VICTOR RETURNED TO THE WHITE HOUSE—President Truman and his racing mate, Alvin K. Bunting, are shown as the presidential car arrived at the White House in Washington, D.C., after the chief executive came back "home" to his biggest horse-racing victory in his life. Margaret Truman and Mrs. Max Truitt, daughter of the vice-president-elect.—S.N.S. photo.

SMILING IN THE RAIN—Reverend Henry, noted U.S. novelist and his fourth wife, Mary Welch, visit Venice, Italy, and remain cheerful and manage to display broad grins despite the pouring rain which marred their Venetian holiday. For the writer it is a "working holiday" as he nears completion of his new novel.

CANADA'S OLDEST LIVING COUPLE CELEBRATE—Add Mrs. Pierre Godfrey of Barrie, near Toronto, Ont., who makes a successful marriage and she'll say: "Look after your husband and your marriage will last after itself." Look after your wife and she'll say: "Look after your husband and your marriage will last after itself." Here, posing at a photograph taken of themselves five years after they were married, are Pierre and Juliette Godfrey, Canada's oldest living married couple. They hope to be around to celebrate their 100th anniversary.—S.N.S. photo.

NATION'S FARMERS SHOW FINEST AT ANNUAL WINTER FAIR—The aristocracy of Canadian farms competed with each other at the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto, Ont., to keep their warm old-time show barns jockeyed on. They had to be kept immaculate for show. In background Fay Jobe, Dorothy Perkins, Jean Elliott, Florence Owens, Pamela Day, Audrey Crick and Audrey Corbett look over the "winners on the show".—S.N.S. photo.

ANGLO-AMERICAN GET-TOGETHER AT EMBASSY AT LONDON—This informal group of VIPs was photographed in the drawing-room of the U.S. embassy in London after the luncheon tendered by U.S. Ambassador Lewis Douglas for U.S. and British statesmen. Left to right are Secretary of State George Marshall, Mrs. Winston Churchill (seated), Mrs. Lewis Douglas (standing), Mr. James Douglas (seated on floor), Ambassador Douglas, Mrs. Marshall Douglas, James Douglas (standing), Mrs. Marshall and Winston Churchill. The wartime prime minister and the U.S. secretary of state had a long chat after the luncheon. The day is Mrs. Douglas' 40th birthday.—S.N.S. photo.

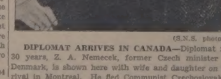

DECORATED BY KING—David Charles Winter, 11, of London, had the day off from school recently when he went to Buckingham Palace with his parents so the King could decorate him with the Albert medal for gallantry on land. The Boy Scout's "good deed" was a rescue when three of his friends broke through the ice on a frozen lake last February. He helped one swim ashore and got the other two to shore with the aid of a rope. The last two died.—Reuterphoto from S.N.S.

HE GETS AROUND—Bill Mark, 20, is a young man who is making a name for himself in New York, after arriving with his parents from Canada. Though only 18 months old, he has brought to America with him a brief visit with relatives in Philadelphia. He'll be off again this time to Ethiopia. Reason for the travel? He did it in an airline accident.

PARACHUTE VICTIM—When his parachute failed to open during a practice jump at River, Mrs. Loretta Garry, 4, of Larchmont, was killed. The accident was described as "one in a million".—S.N.S. photo.

DIPLOMAT ARRIVES IN CANADA—Diplomat for 30 years, A. Nemecek, former Czech minister to Denmark, is shown here with wife and daughter on arrival in Montreal. He fled Communist Czechoslovakia.

Accent Is Still On Youth Among N.H.L. Clubs

The six National Hockey League teams are strong advocates of youth policy which is becoming more and more apparent in the last few days.

The average age among the six teams is 24.4 years. Only 19 of the 101 players in the League have reached the 30 or more mark.

Toronto Maple Leafs, a team that consistently comes up with youthful squads, has the youngest average age of 23.4 years.

MAKING REDUCED PACE OF ALASKA—Some 35,000 square miles of rugged Alaskan terrain were photographed recently by the Lockheed P-38. It was the first time in 20 years that any extensive photography has been done in the Alaskan area. Three of the planes that did the job are shown here flying in formation over the south end of Mt. Fairweather range. Ready to take in background. Special camera, built for this work, was used in the photographing—N.S.A. photo.

Believe Atomic Energy Started Mysterious Migration Of Birds

NEW YORK—Atomic energy may have started the mysterious migration of birds from the north to the south, according to the Geological Survey, the U.S. Department of the Interior.

This theory, coming from radioactive heat in the earth, split continents apart and then drifted them by thousands of miles of water, and the birds followed.

The theory of migration was of birds followed by the water, and the birds followed the water, and the birds followed the water.

Tenders Invited

For the purchase of (1) Gartley School, (2) Barn, (3) Coal shed, and (4) out buildings. Tenders for all buildings, or separately as desired. Buildings to be removed from School Grounds.

Tenders will be accepted up to Dec. 9, 1948. Highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

(Signed)
Albert W. Poland, Sec.-Treasurer, Drumheller School Division, No. 30 Box 570, Drumheller.

He asked himself what was the right thing to do, rather than the expedient thing. He took his family into his confidence and shared his conviction. They agreed and backed him. Then he told his banker.

"You can't do it," was the answer and Morison knew the banker was right—in one respect. He could not do it alone. So he turned to his friends, his neighbors and the office staff, and explained the situation. He enlisted them in his fight and they responded.

STRAIGHTENING THE RECORD

In a report of the 14th annual convention of the Social Credit League, with reference to Old Age Pensions, the Edmonton Bulletin states: "Ceiling for Old Age Pension is $37 a month. Of this amount the federal government supplies 75 per cent of the basic pension of $30 a month. In addition to its 25 per cent share of this..."

Reference to any municipal official, or to any municipal body, would have informed the reporter that while the dominion government pays 75 per cent of the basic pension, the Alberta government certainly does not pay the remaining 25 per cent. For many years past, Alberta has been the only province charging back to municipal bodies from 70 to 10 per cent of its share of Old Age Pensions.

Premier Manning, however, has promised that his government will take over its full share of the pension, following legislation to implement some phases of the Judge Commission Report on Taxation, which he proposes to introduce during the next session of the legislature.

HOLD THE LINE AGAINST INFLATION

What one man can do to hold the line against inflation is answered by the action of a Canadian baker, Cecil Morrison, of Ottawa. During the war, as presider of the National Bakers' of the Baking Industry of this country and later as Bread Administrator for our Government, he was the first to hold the line of the price of bread at pre-war level.

With controls removed after the war, the price of bread jumped 300%. Bakers were still losing money. Some answered the situation with a further price increase. "There's only one way to stop inflation; someone's got to stop rising prices," he said. "There's only one way to stop inflation; someone's got to stop rising prices."

was using money. What could he do? Here entered what he called, "The moral factor in business."

Mrs. R. Lindsay left Monday night to spend a vacation with her son and daughter-in-law at Golden, B.C.

Regular meeting of the Delia branch, Canadian Legion will be held in the Legion Hall on Sunday, December 5th, at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Skelton, from Rosedale, spent the week end with her son, Drake Skelton, principal of the local school.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Macpherson attended the twenty-fifth annual Wheat Pool Convention, held in Calgary.

Light snow fell on Friday of last week, with the temperature falling to zero in the early hours of Saturday. Later in the day, a bitter wind from the north sprang up making travelling unpleasant. At night of writing, it has become again mild.

UNITED EMERGENCY FUND FOR BRITAIN

A great deal of admirable work has been done by individuals, organizations and committees to relieve the suffering of the British people. In a period of food shortage and other restrictions Canadian citizens have been generous and ready to assist appeals, private and general.

It is really surprising to learn the number of people who register each month for the British relief fund or friends. Some Canadians maintain a regular schedule of shipments at considerable expense to themselves.

These genuine expressions of kindness and consideration, these expressions of recognition of the difficulties of the people of Europe generally, do not come from the selfishness of their own, are in every way commendable.

Some years ago a group of persons interested in philatophy and who had given generously to agencies having for their objective the relief of the people of Europe generally, undertook a survey of the costs involved. Their conclusions were that a good deal of money was lost in the transportation, assembly and distribution of relief goods and parcels. This group then decided to undertake a survey of expenses or to eliminate it altogether.

Through the co-operation of the British and Canadian governments, it was possible to cut the cost of delivery and to reduce competition for scarce items of general need in the United States.

United Emergency Fund for Britain (UEFB), has formally accepted its objective and it is now possible to reduce the cost of delivery to the real value of a parcel at the same cost. The Fund is making for a good appeal to Canadian people to help the United States British people, whose inadequacy and shortages of life are matter of common knowledge.

Province Spends Over $100,000,000 On Roads

More than $100,000,000 has been expended on Alberta highway improvements this year by the provincial public works department, according to information received by the Alberta Motor Association.

Work now laid to be completed on some projects will be completed in the near future for the purpose having been exhausted. It is assumed that these projects will have priority when the 1949 program is launched.

The department has a number of new highway bridges planned, and these will be undertaken next year. Now that estimates are in course of preparation for the next session of the legislature which opens Feb. 17, officials of the department are full of the appropriations being laid out here, or larger than the last two years.

The amount provided for highway work this year was $135,000,000. With the amount of construction of provincial funds, it is expected that the 1949 year will be no less than $150,000,000.

ACTOR

Listeners to the Vancouver Drama series on Maudslayi (CBW 10:30 P.M.; CRK; CBX 9:30 P.M.), are familiar with the voice of MURRAY WESTGATE, who plays a wide variety of roles. Before the war, during which he served with the RCRN in the North Atlantic, he was active in the Delia Little Theatre. In 1946 he toured western Canada with the Everyman Theatre.

Cost Of Wheat In Bread

A study into the cost of bread making, made recently by the United States government, showed that wheat accounts for about 23 per cent of the price of a 15c loaf of bread. A lot of other costs—labor, transportation, fuel, and so on—make up the balance.

Much of the higher cost of living today is actually the result of increased costs of handling, manufacturing and distributing. When the cost of wheat goes up, the cost of a loaf of bread is really seen, for this share is not exorbitant.
